© The National Society (Church of England and Church in Walesthie Promotion of Education 2018 Updated September 2018

© The National Society (Church of England and Church in Walesthie Promotion of Education 2018 Updated September 2018

for planning andbadership of collective worship. Members of the community, including war veterans, were delighted t part of the moving dediation of a Remembrance Garden. The contribution of the ordained chaplain results in thou provoking worship, both forworship in follege-groups and special services in the Halifax Minsteowever, these acts of worship happen only occasionally and its do not regularly experience the rich variety of Anglican worship traditic Staff do not usually lead worship beyond their tutor group. Conseque pulse do not heat he range of perspectives on Christian values and faith.

RE is well regarded by nost pupils They appreciate that lessons are interesting and challenging. This is because curriculum is carefully and collaboratively lanned to meet their needs and engage their interesting in curriculum planning is shared with othethurch schools